Subject: Freedom of Information Act Request: Brian Benczkowski Calendar

Email

To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, I hereby request the following records:

A copy of the calendar maintained by Brian Benczkowski, by himself or his staff, for the months of September 2019 to October 20th, 2019.

Due to the public interest in this request, please expedite the processing. This request is being made by a member of the press.

The requested documents will be made available to the general public, and this request is not being made for commercial purposes.

In the event that there are fees, I would be grateful if you would inform me of the total charges in advance of fulfilling my request. I would prefer the request filled electronically, by e-mail attachment if available or CD-ROM if not.

Thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation in this matter. I look forward to receiving your response to this request within 20 business days, as the statute requires.

Sincerely,

Freddy Martinez

This is an appeal to the DOJ for its refusal to process our FOIA request on an expedited basis. The calendar in question establishes when Brian Benczkowski met with Rudy Giuliani. As your office may be aware, two of Giuliani's are under indictment out of the SDNY. Therefore, the timing of the meeting meets the threshold of "the request concerns a matter of current exigency to the American public". Further the consequences of delaying a response would compromise a significant recognized interest and the request concerns federal government activity.

Therefore, I request a formal appeal under USC 552 for expedited processing.
